There was a brilliant marriage at Branch's church, in Chesterfield county, on Wednesday afternoon, when Mr. William Clarke led to the altar Miss Carrie Bittle, and the two were pronounced man and wife. The church had been beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers, and in the centre of the oral display appeared the inscription: "C. B. to W. C.," the letters being made of golden rod and tastefully fastened to a background of ferns, the whole presenting a scene frare beauty and loveliness. The spacious elifice was filled to its utmost capacity with riends of the contracting parties come hither witness the ceremony and wish the happy young couple much joy in life.

As the wedding march pealed forth from the organ upon the stillness of the woodland curroundings, the bridal cortege marched plemning up the right hand isle. The ushers, Mesrs. WHITEHEAD WILL CASE.

There has been nothing in Manchester for a long time that has attracted so much atten-tion as the Whitehead will case now pending tion as the Whitehead will case now pending in the hustings court. The case was called last Thursday week and has engaged the attention of the judge and jury ever since. The evidence was all given in by Wednesday, when the argument begun and was concluded yesterday, when Hon, George D. Wise made a brilliant effort in behalf of the defendant and Mr. W. H. Garnett closed the case with a splendid summing up of the evidence and a most earnest anneal for the plaintiff.

appeal for the plaintiff.

The case was given to the jury at 4:30 P.
M and at 11 P. M, they were called in and rendered the following verdict.

"We the jury, find that the paper-writing, propounded as the last will and testament of Richard S. nal will of the deceased leaves his oty about equally divided between his aw and the negro woman Hutchinson, at the latter's death the entire estate to the nephew. The other relations are not of the final result.

This is the second time the case has been in the courts, and the evidence in the present trial made a manuscript of 400 pages. The of argument pursued by the plaintiffs be incapacity of deceased to make a will nudue influence exerted over the man and the undue influence exerted over the man be the negro woman. Susan Hutchinson. The defendants, of course, attempted to procethat Mr. Whitehead was perfectly sane, and therefore competent to make a will, and that he had a perfect right to will his property as he chose. There have been some fine techpal points brought out and a magnificent solay of legal ability shown in the case, spart from which there has been nothing worthy of mention except its great length. AGAINST LIQUOR.

A Big Temperance Meeting in Grace-Street Baptist Tabernacle.

The second Gospel temperance meeting of the season under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held at the Grace-street Tabernacle at 8 o'clock last eveoring. Several temperance songs were splendidly rendered by Mrs. A. P. Apperson and Messrs B. F. Cosby and I. H. Jenkins. Brief addresses were made by Rev. Dr. W. F. Hatcher, Rev. L. A. Cutler and Rev. I. J. Spencer, Mr. Spencer spoke last, taking as his subject Bible Temperance, and said that it ought to be emphasized; that Christian temperance records are that that it ought to be emphasized; that Christian temperance people are not the enemies of liquor dealers, but their friends. The spirit of the Gospel is to love all and to strive to save all. The saloon, however, is a real enemy of young men, of the homes, the Commonwealth and the Church; but these who sell and those who drink have souls to save, and in order to save them we must show a kind, Christian spirit.

must show a kind, Christian spirit.

"I advocate such a Gospel temperance platform as all Christians can stand upon. While some are in favor of prohibition, national or local, others of temperance education and others indifferent, there should be a faithful, wise and persistent effort made to unite all the preachers, churches and philanthropic people of Richmond, so as to bring a united sentiment and influence to bear against the traffic so destructive of happiness, of homes and of human souls.

"There is too much waste of temperance

"There is too much waste of temperance sentiment by division. Let there be union, harmony and action on the part of Richmond Christians against the liquor iniquity just as far as possible. There ought to be a great temperance rally of such a nature as would bring all Christians into line and into aggressive influence against the eyil of strong sive influence against the evil of strong

THE FIRE LAST EVENING.

Paint Shop of the Richmond and Alleghany. A Serious Accident to a Hose Cart.

Considerable excitement existed last evening at 7 o'clock when it was known that the fire alarm then being rang in puzzling tintinnabulations was for box 83, Richmond and Alleghamy shops. To be exact, the alarm was turned in at 6.43, and the fire existed in the painting department of the shops. This building is a frame annex to the moulding de-partment, and the loss is about $250.

The engines present were steamers 6 and 4, and the firemen did excellent work. The fire was subdued very quickly, much to the disgust of the spectators. Had the case been different the railroad company would have suffered considerable loss, for if the flames had reached the building adjoining the moulding shop, an establishment filled with cols, grease, etc., it would have madelthe work doubly hard for the fire fighters, and the loss heavy to the converse. heavy to the company.

Had the men present when the fire was discovered been able to work their private fire apparatus, the alarm would have never been sent in, but unfortunately they were unable to do so.

The building burned contained much paint, which burned rapidly, and the flames made a glaring reflection in the heavens. The latter attracted many people, and as a result Gamble's Hill was lined with interested spectators. The gathering was quite a fashionable one, embracing many ladies from Franklin, Grace, Main and Third streets.

CAVALRY MASS-MEETING.

A Large Gathering of Veterans Met in Lee Camp Hall.

TO ERECT A MONUMENT TO J. E. B. STUART

Arrangements to Be Made For a Grand Reunion During the State Fair_Name For the Association.

A mass-meeting of cavalrymen of the Army of Northern Virginia was held last evening in Lee Camp hall. Mr. C. A. Taylor, president of the Hanover Troop Association, called the meeting to order, and among those present were: Messrs. Philip Haxall, L. B. Vaughan, T. W. Sydnor, Leopold Levy, Gervas Storrs, John J. Crutchfield, J. P. George, J. H. Ware, J. W. Thomas, Morris Evans, James D. Redford, R. G. Crouch, James Benson, J. F. Flournoy, J. M. Lipscomb, Fleming Meredith, J. W. Gordon.

Mr. Taylor explained the object of the meeting, saying that the last time the Hanover Troop Association met a committee was appointed to make proper arrangements for the unveiling of the Wickham statue, and that in conjunction with this many had thought an excellent plan would be to have a grand reunion of the veterans about the same time. Mr. Taylor also said. "Within the sacred precincts of Hollywood there sleeps the Prince Ruppert of the there sleeps the Prince Ruppert of the Confederacy—J. F. B. Stuart—and it has been suggested by many that the survivors of his old squadron place upon his grave a shaft that will in years yet to come bear silent testimony to the affection and love with which the peo-ple of Virginia ever held him. PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.

On motion of Mr. Sydnor, Mr. C. A. Taylor was made permanent chairman, and on motion of Mr. Vaughan, Mr. Fleming Meredith was elected permanent secretary.

Mr. Sydnor supplementing what had already been said by Mr. Taylor, stated the meeting had been the result of a general idea among many old cavalrymen of this city. That vear by year some veteran who had drawn his sword for the Confederacy answered the final roll-call, and that they had deemed it an idea worthy of consideration. Mr. Sydnor concluded by moving that there be a reunion of all old cavalrymen during the progress of of all old cavalrymen during the progress of of all old cavarymen during the progress of the coming State Fair.

Several gentlemen present expressed favor-able views of such an affair, and the motion was unanimously carried. It was also moved and carried that the chairman appoint a com-mittee of ten or more to make all necessary arrangements.

Mr. J. F. Flournoy moved that the meeting form itself into a permanent association to be known as the Veteran Cavalry Association of the Army of Northern Virginia. This was discussed at some length, and it was finally decided that the scheme be conwas handy decided that the schedule be soldered at the reunion.

Colonel G. Percy Hawes, who was also present, stated that at the solicitation of others he had conferred with Colonel Henry C. Jones relative to obtaining the use of the Regimental Armory for the reunion, and that he was happy to report that Colonel Jones was willing to place the use of the building in the hands of the veterans on October 28th. The offer was informally accepted, and the president directed the committee mentioned above to advise Colonel Jones that his offer above to advise Colonel Jones that his offer had been accepted with sincere thanks. President Taylor announced the following committee: Messrs. T. W. Sydnor, J. H. Ware, E. C. Minor, Philip Haxall, A. L. Boul-ware, John P. George, Leopold Levy, James R. Werth, J. A. Lipscomb, James Flournoy, E. A. Catlin, F. D. Hill, Fleming Meredith, J. W. Thomas, Luther B. Vaughan and Dr. Couch

Mr. Vaughan spoke in reference to the erection of a monument to the memory of General Stuart, and Mr. J. P. George and Captain Philip Haxall gave some interesting facts in reference to the Stuart Monument Association, which was formed in 1865. They said that at that time an appeal was made throughout the Southern States for funds, and many were the replies received which said that money then was needed more for the living than the dead. There was quite a sum collected, however, but that which was subscribed has been used. The Association has, by the passage of time, allowed its en-thusiasm to die out, and in the meanwhile the brother of General Stuart erected to the latter's memory the monument that now marks the hero's grave.

It was also stated that there is an ordinance pending in the Council which was considered years ago providing that the city of Richmond appropriate a certain sum to aid in the erection of the Stuart monument. This was to have been done as a testimonial of appreciation from the city of General Stnart's service when he saved the city from being sacked by the Federals.

During the meeting the idea of a banquet forming the meeting the idea of a banduet after the reunion was suggested by some and in his talk Captain Hazall spoke opposingly to such an affair. He said that a banguet in the strictest sense of the word would cost in the neighborhood of $800, and he was much of the opinion that the money could be more judiciously spent in memory of General Stuart. That his idea was to have something to eat and drink—but no banquet. The matter will, of course, be left to the committee.

A vote of thanks was tendered Lee Camp and the Sons of Veterans for the use of the hall, after which the meeting adjourned to meet at the call of the chairman.

The arrangements committee will meet next Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at Mr. C.

A. Taylor's office in the Union depot.
